Copy of letter No. S.V.N. 113 dated 16th May 1919 from the Political Agent, Dharwar, to this office.

Subject:-- Census of libraries in India.

My friend,

I have the honour to inform you that the Government of India have before them the question of compiling & publishing a census of libraries in India, and they desire to enlist the --- co-operation of the Durbars. They have accordingly called for ---- information regarding the libraries in State limits in the form --- appended.

2. If you have no objection, I shall be glad to have similar information as regards libraries in your State for transmission to Government.

3. It is to be noted --

There are no such libraries here. Reed 9.5.19.

1) that no libraries containing less than 5000 volumes should be included in the census, save libraries of special interest

2) that no library should be included which is mainly a libran of works of fiction

3) that school & college libraries should be included only if they contain a considerable number of books of interest and value other than ordinary text books.

Yours sincerely,

the decree from the said Court together with a certificate from the Court to the effect that the said decree is satisfied and then he ~~[illegible]~~ institutes a fresh suit in this Court bearing his claim on the said decree. This process entails much trouble & delay. The parties will be saved from this unnecessary trouble if the decrees of this Court are executed by the Courts in British India & vice versa. Government of Bombay Political Department.

Resolution No. 6720

Bombay Castle, 18th September 1916.

The Government of India, in their notification No. 2053-9.B., dated the 22nd September 1916, in the Foreign Department, notified for general information that certain Native States had agreed that the decrees passed by Civil Courts in British India might be executed by the Courts in their territories which were detailed thereunder. But no provision appears to have been made for the procedure by which the decree of a British India Court should reach the Native state Court by which it was to be executed. Nor is any such provision included in the Civil procedure Codes 1908.

2 It has been brought to the notice of Government that difficulties have arisen in connection with decrees of the Court of Small Causes, Bombay, which it was desired to obtain execution through the Civil Courts of Rajapipla state in the Rewa Kantha Agency. Such decrees are submitted by the Solicitors of the decree holders, together with the necessary certificates of non-political Agent for transmission through the Rajapipla Darbar to the proper Court in Rajpipla State. The Darbar points out that the practice hitherto in force in the State is that the decree should be forwarded by the decree-holder through the British Court which passed the decree. The Registrar of the Court of Small Causes, on the other hand, pointed to the absence of any provision of law or statutory rule enabling the Court to send its decree to a native State Court for execution. It may be mentioned that only certain parts of the Civil Procedure Code apply to the Presidency Small Cause Courts, their procedure being in others respects regulated by rules framed by the High Court under section 9 of the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act 1882 (XV of 1882). But the Registrar's position would have been equally tenable in the case of a Court to which the Civil Procedure Code applies in its entirety.

3. "It is believed that another procedure also in use is for the decree-holder to obtain a copy of the judgement and decree of the Small Cause Court, and then to file a suit in the Native State Court. It was, however, evidently the intention of the Government of India, when issuing their notification above quoted, that the necessity for a fresh suit in the Native State Court should be avoided.

4. Prima facie it would appear to be a desirable precaution that the decree should be required to be forwarded to the Political Agent not by the decree-holder direct, but by the British Court at the instance of the decree-holder.

If this procedure is to be followed, it is a matter for consideration whether a section ought to be inserted in the Civil Procedure Code, enabling the British Indian Courts in this behalf, and requiring decrees forwarded by such Courts to duly authorised Native State Courts to be forwarded to such Courts through the proper channel. It has been objected that such direction, while binding on the British Indian Courts, would also be an implied direction to Native State Courts, and in this respect would be objectionable. The Agent to the Governor, Kattiwar, the Resident at Kolhapur, and Political Agent, Southern Maratha Country States and the Political Agents of Palanpur, Mahi Kantha, Rewa Kantha, Surat Kolaba, Sholapur, Sawantwadi and Dharwar are requested to report their opinions on the subject generally. The opinions of Political Agents who are subordinate to a Commissioner should be submitted through the Commissioner, who is requested to add his own opinion. If legislation on this point is considered desirable, it should further be considered whether the following draft of a section to be inserted in Civil Procedure Code would meet the requirements of the case:—

"45-A. So much of the foregoing sections of this part as empowers a court to send a decree for execution to another Court shall be construed as empowering a Court in British India to send a decree for execution to any Court situate in the territories of any Native prince or state in alliance with His Majesty and not established or Continued by the authority of the Governer-General in Council to which the Governer-General in Council has, by notification in the Gazette of India, declared this section to apply. Every decree so sent shall be sent by the Court in British India to the Court in respect of which such notification has been published as aforesaid by such channel or means as may be prescribed in this behalf by the Governer-General in Council".

The opinion of the Political officers is also desired as to what channel should be prescribed for the above purpose.

My friend

In reply to your reminder No. 437 of 22nd May 1919, I have the honour to state that your No. 717 of November 20th, 1916 does not seem to call for any reply. The suggested amendment of the Civil Procedure Code which occasioned the correspondence is presumably still being considered by the Government of India.
